April, May & June, 2015

Let's Travel Together In 2015!!

Upcoming Trips:

"The Spy Who Killed Me" - March 28, 2015 (Saturday)

Looking for something fun after the long Iowa winter? Join JH Travel for a fun Saturday with a later morning departure and an early evening arrival back to Newton.

The Old Creamery is presenting a comedy . . . no wait . . . a murder.. . no wait . . . mystery??? Yes, you heard right! This is a new show that is a comedy, murder, mystery and a dinner theatre! We will travel to The Clarion Hotel and Convention Center in Cedar Rapids where our meal will be served in between the acts during the show!

Ok, our story begins . . . When secret agent Jacob Seal gets an urgent call from his Agency, this comic murder mystery is off to a running start! When faced with henchman, double agents, and a chicken pluckers' convention, will Seal be able to find Dr. Doom and stop his evil plan before it's too late? Your mission should you choose to accept it, is to join us for hilarious antics and great food, while you help us catch a criminal master mind.

On our way back to Newton a quick stop will be made at a fast food location if you wish to pick up something (on your own).

"Wine Trail Weekend" - April 18 - 19, 2015 (Saturday - Sunday)
* NEEDING FOUR MORE TRAVELERS - PLEASE HELP US FIND THOSE!!!!

Join JH Travel on a relaxing spring weekend getaway to enjoy wine, food, awesome accommodations at The Elms and the opportunity to meet new friends! Looking forward to having you join JH Travel for a wonderful wine weekend getaway!

We will begin by boarding a Hawkeye Stages motor coach and travel onto the only Iowa winery on our itinerary which is Two Saints Winery by St. Charles. Upon arrival a morning snack of croissants & jam will be shared before a tour & tasting of their wines. In Osborn, MO a visit to Windy Wine Co for wine tasting and also checking out their new Microbrewery. Lunch will be next at the Willow Spring Mercantile at their Bistro in Excelsior Springs, MO which also has over 300 Missouri wines available along with several beer choices and there is retail shopping therapy available. A little shopping time before going to the hotel in historic downtown Excelsior Springs with art studios, home decor and many neat, unique type stores. Upon arrival at The Elms Hotel located in Excelsior Springs - prepare to be pampered at this upscale hotel as you will enjoy your stay at this grand hotel! A very relaxing evening awaits our group at the Van Till Family Winery with a garden fresh salad, wood fired cheesy bread sticks, and Artisan Gourmet wood-fired oven pizzas with a wine tasting prior to our meal. And, back to hotel for a night of peaceful rest!

The next morning you will be a guest at 88 at The Elms for a wonderful breakfast buffet all the while enjoying the warm and unfussy ambiance of the restaurant. Time to depart! Our first winery to visit is Ladoga Winery located in the rolling hills of Smithville, MO., a beautiful area to escape for a wine tasting and tour. Over the hills and around the bend our coach will find the Jowler Creek Winery which is also a family owned winery and produces award winning wines. Our travelers are in for a special treat as our lunch will be served in the very historic Weston Brewing Company in Weston, MO. A choice of three main entrees will be given along with dessert and be sure to check out the underground cellars where evening entertainment is provided. The next winery on our itinerary is located in a former Lutheran Evangelical Church that was built by German immigrants in 1867 which is the Pirtle Winery in Weston, MO. Our last winery, Riverwood Winery, is located in a former school and surrounded by the Missouri River Bluffs. It is now time to begin our journey back to Newton with a fast food stop (on your own) along the way.

Tour includes: motor coach transportation, overnight accommodations at The Elms Hotel, 4 meals (1 buffet breakfast, two lunches and one dinner) & 1 morning snack, all taxes and gratuities on the above mentioned attractions. And, all the fun along the way!

"Tractors, Tractors & More Tractors" - June 25, 2015 (Thursday)

This trip is a day to learn about Iowa's many hidden treasures! Beginning with the John Deere Tractor Assembly Plant in Waterloo. The plant assembles 95 to 450 horsepower tractors in one of the most environmentally sound production facilities in North America. We will begin with a 15 minute video on the history of John Deere and ride on a trolley through the manufacturing plant. This is wonderful, easy tour which has been recently changed. (No open-toe shoes, cameras or cell phones allowed). A buffet lunch will be eaten at River Loop Public Market Cafe followed by a visit to the John Deere Tractor & Engine Museum which has just recently opened. This new museum tells the story behind the development of engines and tractors and why the John Deere Company came to Waterloo. Hear the stories of men and women who have worked at John Deere and how they have contributed to the evolution of the tractor.

We then travel to Dunkerton, Iowa to see a collection of the finest antique & vintage tractors, steam engines and gasoline engines in the Midwest owned by Kenny Kass. His collection is one of the top five in the United States which includes prairie tractors from the turn of the century, Aultman-Taylor, Russell and the rare Rumely Oil Pull Tractors. An additional building houses collections of old clocks, calendars, farm & kitchen tools. He is excited to share his collection with our travelers! Our evening meal will be served at Barn Happy which is a 1925 renovated dairy barn decorated with Iowa handmade gifts and made in Iowa food products. The upstairs houses antiques that complete the nostalgic Iowa experience!

Day # 2 – July 16 | Worthington Glacier, Valdez

This morning, breakfast is provided before boarding a deluxe motorcoach for today's adventure to Valdez. Drive through the Matanuska Susitna Valley where record monster size vegetables grow in the 24-hour daylight and stop by Worthington Glacier for a look at this gigantic piece of ice. Early evening you arrive in Valdez, known as Alaska's Little Switzerland where you check into your overnight accommodations which include a reception. (B,R)

Day # 3 – July 17 |

Prince William Sound, Columbia Glacier

Enjoy a continental breakfast at the hotel prior to the chance to explore this port community, including entrance to the Valdez Museum. Later board a glacier & wildlife cruise and travel through the majestic Prince William Sound. Explore the three-mile face of the mighty Columbia Glacier and keep your eyes open for seals, sea lions, otters, whales and puffins. Overnight will be in Valdez. (CB,L)

Day # 4 – July 18 | Fairbanks

After a continental breakfast your motorcoach travels north to Fairbanks, the largest city in the interior of Alaska.

The route today will take you along the Wrangell-St. Elias National Park, the largest park in the United States and the Trans-Alaska Pipeline. Overnight will be in Fairbanks, known to Alaskans as the Golden Heart City. (CB)

Day # 5 – July 19 | Chena River Cruise, Salmon Bake

Today you will learn how the gold rush affected Alaska's interior on a sightseeing tour that will include a visit to the University of Alaska's Fairbanks Museum. You will have time for shopping, walking and dining on your own in downtown Fairbanks before a cruise on the Chena River aboard a sternwheeler. Tonight will be your second overnight in Fairbanks and for dinner we have included a salmon bake. (B,D)

Day # 6 – July 20 | Denali National Park

It is time to head south today, on the way to Denali National Park. When you arrive enjoy an afternoon of exploration at your leisure either in a complimentary park service activity or an optional tour. Your choices might be a river rafting adventure, flightseeing Mt. McKinley, or a visit to the award winning dog kennels of Iditarod champion Jeff King. Tonight an optional Denali Dinner Theatre is available. Overnight is in Denali Park. (B)

Day # 7 – July 21 | Tundra Wilderness Tour

Travel deep into Denali National Park today on the Tundra Wilderness Tour, searching the pristine wilderness for bear, moose, caribou and Dall sheep. This five hour narrated journey provides great insight into this spectacular region. The remainder of the day and evening are on your own with overnight lodging again in Denali. (B,S)

Day # 8 – July 22 | Alaska Railroad to Anchorage

This morning will be your final opportunity to explore Denali Park on your own. This afternoon board the world famous Alaska Railroad and ride the Deluxe Dome Railcars for the trip to Talkeetna. Traveling the scenic route along the Susitna River, you may catch a glance of Mt. McKinley or maybe a black bear along the river's edge. A meal will be included on the train. You will overnight in Talkeetna. (B, L)

Day # 9 – July 23 | Iditarod Headquarters, Anchorage

This morning is yours to enjoy Talkeetna. You may choose from a number of optional excursions such as flightseeing over Mt. McKinley, a jet boat ride on the Susitna, a zip line or hiking. This afternoon transfer by motorcoach to Anchorage. En route visit the Iditarod Headquarters to learn more about "The Last Great Race". Upon arrival in Anchorage, enjoy a brief city tour before checking into the hotel. (B)

Day # 10 – July 24 | Kenai Fjords National Park, Seward

Board the motorcoach for today's grand adventure to Seward, the gateway to the Kenai Fjords National Park. As you travel along the scenic Turnagain Arm, keep an eye out for Dall sheep as well as moose, bear and eagles. Upon arrival, you transfer to Seward's small boat harbor for your glacier and wildlife cruise. Overnight will be in Seward. (B,L)

Day # 11 – July 25 |

Alaska Native Heritage Center, Anchorage

This morning travel back to Anchorage with an opportunity along the way to see Alaska's big game at the Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center. When you arrive in Anchorage, visit the Alaska Native Heritage Center, a place that shares the native cultures of Alaska. Tonight share stories of your Alaskan adventure with your traveling companions at a closing night dinner with overnight in Anchorage. (B,D)

AMISH COUNTRY BACKROADS

from Indiana to Ohio

8 DAYS | SEPTEMBER 15 – 22, 2015

This Amish Country Adventure encompasses the cultures in Northern Indiana and Central Ohio featuring personal experiences, great food and interesting attractions. Add to that an Irish Experience, a mega Dairy Farm, special fun at the Zoo and some history on air flight.

DAY # 1 – SEPTEMBER 15

Middlebury, Indiana

Board your deluxe motorcoach this morning for the journey that will take you across some of America's Amish Backroads. Your first destination is Northern Indiana and a two-night stay in Middlebury. Lunch and break stops will be along the way, but your evening meal will be Dinner with the Chef at nearby Goshen College. (D)

DAY # 2 – SEPTEMBER 16

Amish Country Tour

After an included breakfast at the hotel, you are in for a full day of touring. Your Amish guide will take you along the Backroads of Northern Indiana. Learn about this unique culture and its people and visit a carriage maker, a camel farm, a casket maker and the Stone Horses. You will also have time for shopping and lunch on your own at the famous Shipshewana Flea Market. Whatever you need, you can find it here. Tonight you are in for a treat as you will be the guests of an Amish family for dinner in their home. (B,D)

DAY # 3 – SEPTEMBER 17

Jayco Tour, Ohio Mystery

Breakfast is again served up for you at the hotel before departing for a morning tour of the Jayco Manufacturing Company in Middlebury, well known for their campers, travel trailers and fifth wheels. Following the tour, you travel into the state of Ohio for a two-night stay in the capital city of Columbus. Tonight you have a specially arranged after-hours tour of the Ohio History Museum followed by Dinner and a "WhoDunit" Mystery Show at the Museum. (B,DS)

DAY # 4 – SEPTEMBER 18

Columbus Zoo, Irish Treats

Wake up in Columbus and enjoy breakfast at the hotel. Next you have admission to the Columbus Zoo and a special presentation by America's Favorite Zookeeper, Jack Hanna. You will also have time to talk with him and take photos. There will be free time to enjoy the many wonderful exhibits at the Zoo as well as lunch on your own here. This afternoon, travel to the nearby city of Dublin for some Irish treats, starting with High Tea at Birdie's Coach House. You will then have the chance to take part in some Irish Dance Lessons at Richens-Timm Academy of Irish Dance. Before leaving Dublin, enjoy dinner with an Irish flavor at the Irish Manor House. Overnight will again be in Columbus. (B,D)

DAY # 5 – SEPTEMBER 19

Ohio Amish Country

You can partake of breakfast at the hotel before boarding the coach for a drive eastbound into Ohio Amish Country. Your first stop will be Warther Carvings in Dover, Ohio. See the exquisite train carvings, the Tree of Pliers plus a Swiss style gardens and a button collection totaling more than 73,000 pieces. A local guide will join us for a Backroads Tour of Ohio Amish Country that will include stops at a Bakery, a Cuckoo Clock Maker and the very unique Superb Industries. Tonight you will be treated to an Amish Family Style Dinner and an Amish Country Comedy Barn Show before overnighting in Dover. (B,D)

DAY # 6 – SEPTEMBER 20

German Village, Aviation Park

After breakfast at the hotel, you return to Columbus for a visit to the Candle Lab where you can create your own candle. That will be followed by a guided tour of Columbus's German Village and lunch on your own at Schmidt's German Restaurant. Return to the Lab to pick up your candle then travel west to Dayton, Ohio. Here we stop for overnight accommodations and a visit to the Aviation Heritage National Park where you can see the 1905 Wright Flyer III and a Memorial to the Wright Brothers. After checking into the hotel, you travel a short distance south to enjoy dinner and a Broadway- style show at the La Comedia Dinner Theatre. (B,DS)

DAY # 7 – SEPTEMBER 21

U.S. Air Force Museum

As expected, breakfast will be served for you this morning and before we leave the Dayton area, we will take you to the National Museum of the United States Air Force. It features more than 360 aerospace vehicles and missiles that reflect the development of aviation from the Wright Brothers to the present. We then leave Ohio and travel into Indiana and a stop in Lafayette. Before checking into the hotel, we will take you to West Lafayette on a guided tour of the campus of Purdue University, one of the nation's leading research institutions and a member of the Big Ten Athletic Conference. The remainder of your evening will be at leisure. (B)

DAY # 8 – SEPTEMBER 22

Fair Oaks Dairy

Your final day of this very special travel experience begins with breakfast at the hotel. Travel a short distance north to Fair Oaks, Indiana and a stop at the Fair Oaks Dairy. Home to 32,000 cows, the Fair Oaks Dairy adventure includes a guided tour, interactive exhibits and a wonderful Visitors Center. See the birthing barn and the cheese factory. From here you travel home, arriving late afternoon with lunch and a break stop on your own along the way. (B)
