Later this afternoon we arrive in Albany, New York for our overnight stay. (B) Overnight: Albany, NY

Day #3 Sunday, September 29, 2019

Our first visit today will be the quaint Manchester Village, Vermont. Enjoy free time to shop and browse this lovely town. There are a variety of restaurants for lunch (on own). This afternoon we visit “Hildene”, Robert Todd Lincoln’s family estate. Explore the 24 room Georgian Manor and formal gardens. Visit the fully restored Pullman car and agriculture center where they make goat cheese! Learn about their family fortunes and misfortunes. Later this afternoon we travel into the heart of Vermont’s Green Mountains and our lodging for the next two nights. This evening we enjoy dinner at one of the local restaurants. (BD)

Overnight: Rutland, VT

Day #4 Monday, September 30, 2019

The best collection of Americana in New England is at the Shelburne Museum. Known as the “collection of collections” the museum encompasses 45 acres and 39 buildings in a village setting with free transportation to all sights. American paintings, Impressionists, folk art, historic architecture, covered bridge, 1840 general store, 1950 period house, the 220 foot Historic landmark SS Ticonderoga a circus parade miniatures and much more awaits the visitor. Our final visit today will be the Vermont Teddy Bear Factory for a fascinating adventure into teddy bears! We will have an opportunity to make our own Personalized Teddy Bear to take home! This evening enjoy a gourmet dinner and live cooking demonstration featuring a renowned Vermont chef. (BD) Overnight: Rutland, VT

Day #5 Tuesday, October 1, 2019

It is a short drive to Graniteville, Vermont and a visit the Rock of Ages Quarry. Enjoy a narrated tour of the world’s largest working granite quarries. Watch as master craftsmen create the finest granite products in the manufacturing plant. There is also a Visitors Center and Gift Shop to visit. Next we visit Montpelier, Vermont, the smallest Capital in the United States, with one of only 13 Gold-domes remaining. Lunch (on own) will be at the Vermont State House today. Our travels continue into the White Mountains of New Hampshire. We enjoy the spectacular fall colors of the area with a ride on the longest sky ride in the state to Loon Mountain. Here we have lunch on our own and enjoy the spectacular views. We will also visit the White Mountain Visitors Center for an informative introduction to the area. This evening we enjoy one of the top rated dinner trains in North America aboard the Café Lafayette Dinner Train. (BD) Overnight: Waterville Valley, NH

Day #6 Wednesday, October 2, 2019

This morning our New England adventure continues as we travel through New Hampshire’s fall colors to Boston, Massachusetts and the JFK Library & Museum. Overlooking the bay the library and museum offers the visitor a film on Kennedy’s early years and political life. A self-guided tour of the exhibits, campaign headquarters, oval office, and family memorabilia. Lunch will be here (on own) before departing. We continue on to the Cape Cod area for our next two-night stay at and ocean front resort. (BD) Overnight: South Yarmouth, MA

Day # 7 Thursday, October 3, 2019

This morning we board the ferry to one of Cape Cod’s most treasured destinations, Martha’s Vineyard Island. Walk through the colorful “Gingerbread Cottages” on Oak Bluffs; explore the quaint shops and delightful cafes. We’ll also tour along the ocean where Jaw’s was filmed, take photo stops including the Gay Head Light and view the whaling captain’s mansions that line the streets. We return to the mainland late afternoon and enjoy a delightful Lobster dinner this evening. (BD) Overnight: South Yarmouth, MA
