CHICAGO

Holiday

4 DAYS • DECEMBER 9 – 12, 2013

This Holiday Journey lets you experience the Spirit of the Holidays in the Windy City of Chicago. Dine in some of the finest restaurants, shop in some of Chicago's most well known stores, stay in an historic Chicago hotel and view the city from atop the city's tallest building.

Monday, December 9, 2013

Travel to Chicago

Depart Newton early this morning via deluxe motorcoach and travel across Iowa and into Illinois. You arrive in Chicago in time for lunch in the famous Walnut Room at Macy's Department Store, fully decorated for the holiday season. Following lunch you will have a guided tour of this historic store and be given a 10% discount card to use during the time set aside for shopping. Check into the Palmer House Hilton, one of 26 Grand Palace Hotels in America, for a three-night stay. Dinner tonight will be included as part of a progressive guided tour that will feature some of Chicago's famous Pizza Restaurants. You can view some of the holiday lights on your return to the hotel. ### Windy City Wonders

Breakfast will be included today at Lou Mitchell's Restaurant, one of the most well-known diners in Chicago and located on the famous Route 66. Your morning will be taken up with a visit to the Lincoln Park Conservatory to see their beautiful floral and lighted displays. Next up is a trip to Navy Pier which is host to Winter Wonderfest featuring 170,000 square feet of indoor fun, decorated trees, rides and entertainment. Lunch will be on your own here. For dessert, you can take part in a tour of Eli's Cheesecake Factory and sample some of the product. That will be followed by some time for shopping on the Miracle Mile known as Michigan Avenue. Dinner tonight will be included at Lawry's Prime Rib, followed by an entertaining show. (B,D)

Day #3
