COACH & TRAIN

11 Days | October 2 - 12, 2014

Experience New England in a whole new way as you travel through portions of New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine and Massachusetts via deluxe motorcoach and on unique and scenic railroads. This journey will also feature visits to Niagara Falls, the State of New York and the Amish Country of Pennsylvania

Day 1 - Thursday, October 2 | Toledo, Ohio

You begin this scenic excursion in Newton this morning by boarding a deluxe motorcoach that will take you across portions of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and into Ohio today. Breaks and lunch stops along the way will be on your own. Your overnight accommodations will be in Toledo, OH with dinner included at the hotel. (D)

Day 2 - Friday, October 3 | Niagara Falls

After breakfast at the hotel, you re-board the coach and continue travel eastward into New York State. This afternoon you arrive in Niagara Falls, NY where you will have the opportunity to see one of North America's greatest natural wonders, Niagara Falls. View the majestic fall from the American side and visit the gift shop before making your way to the hotel in the nearby Buffalo, NY area. Dinner will be on your own near the hotel. (B)

Day 3 - Saturday, October 4 | Erie Canal, Eastman House

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel, and then travel to Lockport, NY for a cruise on the famous Erie Canal. This narrated boat ride will take you through locks and past other historic portions of this waterway stretching from the Hudson River to the Great lakes. Next is a visit to the George Eastman House and International

Museum of Photography. George Eastman was the founder of the Eastman-Kodak Company. After lunch on your own here, the motorcoach continues east to the Capital City of Albany for your overnight lodging. Dinner will be included this evening at a well-known Albany restaurant. (B,D)

Day # 4 - Sunday, October 5 | Yankee Candle, Vermont

Another breakfast is provided at the hotel before traveling into Massachusetts and a stop at the Yankee Candle Company in South Deerfield, featuring a factory, candle store, museum and the Bavarian Christmas Village. Vermont is just across the border, and during your journey through the state you will make a stop at the Institute of Natural Science Ecology and Raptor Center. There are wonderful exhibits here to see and you can be part of a training program with one of the birds of prey. There will be a picture stop at Quechee Gorge before continuing to Waterville Valley, New Hampshire for a two-night stay. Dinner is included this evening. (B,D)

Day # 5 - Monday, October 6 | Cog Railway, Dinner Train

As usual, you will be served breakfast before departing for a full day of touring in New Hampshire and the White Mountains region. You stop at the Franconia Notch Visitors Center, and then make your way to Mount Washington. Lunch is on your own here before climbing aboard the Cog Railway for a roundtrip ride to the top of the highest peak in the northeast United States. You have another train ride on your schedule later today, this one in North Woodstock. Once onboard the Café Lafayette Dinner Train, you can sit back and enjoy a scenic train ride and a five-course meal. You return to Waterville Valley for the night. (B,D)

Day # 6 - Tuesday, October 7 | Kennebunkport, Portland

If you are looking for breakfast, it's included at the hotel. We travel to the State of Maine today, first stopping in Kennebunkport, a popular summer resort and favorite location for artists and writers. You will have time to visit some of the many galleries and shops as well as have lunch on your own here. Then we are off to Portland for a guided city tour to be followed by a ride on the Maine Narrow Gauge Railroad, your third train experience here in New England. Overnight will be in Portland with dinner included. (B,D)

Day # 7 - Wednesday, October 8 | Boston, Cape Cod

Partake of a delicious breakfast at the hotel to start your day. No tour to New England would be complete without a stop in the famous and historic city of Boston. We have arranged for a Guided Tour that will include some of Boston's unique neighborhoods as well as stops at the Old North Church and the U.S.S. Constitution. There will also be time for lunch on your own at the Quincy Market before traveling south to Cape Cod and a two-night stay in the city of Yarmouth. Along the way, there will be photo stops in Plymouth for both the Plymouth Rock and the Mayflower II. Dinner will be included tonight. (B,D)

Day # 8 - Thursday, October 9 | Cape Cod Central Railroad

Rise and shine! It is time for breakfast. Your day of touring will consist of a visit to the Cape Cod National Seashore Visitor's Center featuring exhibits on the Cape's natural and cultural history. You also stop at the Kennedy Memorial in Hyannis before boarding the Cape Cod Central Railroad for a ride past cranberry bogs, marshes and woodlands. A box lunch is included. This afternoon you have admission to the Sandwich

Glass Museum before enjoying a lobster dinner this evening. Overnight will again be in Yarmouth. (B,BL,D)

Day # 9 - Friday, October 10 | Pennsylvania Dutch Country

Before we leave Cape Cod, you are invited to enjoy another great breakfast. This will be a day of travel through portions of Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Jersey with the destination being the Lancaster, Pennsylvania area, right in the heart of the state's Dutch Country. There will be a brief opportunity for some shopping before checking into the hotel and then take part in an Amish Style Dinner. (B,D)

Day # 10 - Saturday, October 11 | Richmond, Indiana

Don't forget breakfast. It is waiting for you at the hotel. We are off on a day of a scenic travel through Pennsylvania and Ohio, arriving in Richmond, IN for overnight lodging. Along the way, break stops and lunch will be on your own with activities provided by your Tri-State Travel Tour Director. Tonight a farewell dinner will be served at the hotel. (B,D)

Day # 11 - Sunday, October 12 | New England Memories

You can enjoy your breakfast at the hotel before packing your luggage one last time and boarding the deluxe motorcoach for the ride home. Break stops and lunch will be on your own, and along the way, you can share your favorite memories of the New England Coach and Train Experience with your traveling companions. Arrival in Newton will be late this afternoon. (B)
