Featuring Anchorage, Seward, Homer, Denali and Wasilla (Ten Day, Nine Alaska Escorted Tour Program. This tour is designed for the visitor that has never been to Alaska or is returning to Alaska to see "up close and personal" the true Alaska people, culture, way of life including exclusive agriculture visits.

Day 1 - Thursday, August 16, 2018 Welcome to Anchorage, Alaska
Arrive at the Anchorage airport from your home city where you will be met by your Premier Alaska Tours representative and transfer to your local hotel.
Overnight in Anchorage; Meals: N/A

Day 2 - Friday, August 17, 2018 Turnagain Arm, Kenai Fjords National Park, Glaciers

We depart Anchorage this morning and travel by deluxe motorcoach south along the spectacular Cook Inlet where Captain James Cook had to repeatedly "turn again", his vessel, in search of the Northwest Passage. Along the way we will want to keep a lookout for beluga whales in the murky waters of Turnagain Arm and Dall sheep grazing high above on the cliffs. Upon our arrival in Seward, our "up close and personal experience with Alaska" continues as we board our vessel and spend the day on the water in Kenai Fjords National Park. We will be on the lookout for the abundant sea life in their natural habitat, nesting sea birds and possible encounters with the Stellar Sea Lions. Our captain will also spend time in front of the Tide Water Glaciers for an opportunity to experience huge chunks of ice breaking away into the water of Resurrection Bay.

Overnight in Seward, Alaska; Meals: Breakfast, Lunch aboard boat

Day 3 - Saturday, August 18, 2018 Kenai Cultural Center, Homer, Alaska

Breakfast is included this morning. We then board our deluxe motorcoach and travel to the central peninsula to the community of Kenai. Visit the Kenai Cultural Center located in Kenai and see the incredible display of Alaskan artifacts. Continue the journey south and see spectacular scenery like volcanoes on the far side of the Cook Inlet, lush green valleys and an array of wildflowers.

Overnight in Homer, Alaska; Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4 - Sunday, August 19, 2018 Harbor Walking Tour, Peony Farm, Homer at your Leisure

Fishing is a livelihood for many residents in the Homer area and this morning we will learn about the commercial and/or sports fishing industry with a harbor walking tour and guided by a local fisherman. Homer is also known as “The City of Peonies”. We’ll visit a unique farm that produces and ships these beautiful flowers to all 50 states! The balance of the day is open for optional activities such as a flight-seeing adventure to see the mighty brown bear, sea kayaking in Kachemak Bay, halibut fishing or sightseeing the community. Overnight in Homer, Alaska; Meals: Breakfast

Day 5 - Monday, August 20, 2018 Kenai Peninsula Visitor Center, Alaska Native Heritage Center

Breakfast is included this morning. Today, head north to the Kenai Peninsula Visitor Center located in Soldotna and see the world record King salmon on display. Walk down the boardwalk and search for salmon in the Kenai River and learn about the different types of salmon. Lunch is included today. We continue our travel north and perhaps catch a glimpse of caribou or birds that migrate through this region. Upon arrival in Anchorage we visit the Alaska Native Heritage Center which shares the heritage of Alaska’s 11 major cultural groups. There are local Native American docents on sight to explain their culture and the six outside life-sized Native dwellings. Overnight in Anchorage, Alaska; Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6 - Tuesday, August 21, 2018 Alaska Rail Road, Denali Park

This morning we are transferred to the Anchorage Rail Depot to board the Alaska Rail Road for a scenic journey through some of the most beautiful landscapes in the world. Enjoy luxury service on board with access to dome rail observation cars, meal service, outside observation deck and a friendly and helpful rail staff. View the spectacular scenery while enjoying an included lunch in the dining car. Mid-afternoon we arrive in Denali Park with the balance of the day at our leisure for optional tours such as guided hiking's, flightseeing, rafting, as well as many others activities our guide will review.
